Fans Doubt Announcement Of the Welsh-Lowe Fight

When an announcement was made be fore the Cortez-Lowe battle at the Ardmore fight club on Decoration Day that Freddy Welsh, the world's light-weight champion, had been matched with Tommy Lowe for a ten-round battle on Thursday night, June 8, the fans at the ring side laughed and could not take the announcement seriously.

A few weeks back when Jimmy La Fontaine was making the matches for the Maryland Club he signed Welsh and Lowe for a battle, but eight days before the fight the local pride was compelled to cancel it because of boils on his arm. The Maryland authorities made every effort to substitute a suitable opponent.
